AmTrust International appoints Tony Scott as Head of Claims for AmTrust Specialty

9 October 2025, LONDON – AmTrust International, a global specialty insurer and subsidiary of AmTrust Financial Services, Inc., has announced it has appointed Tony Scott as Head of AmTrust Specialty Limited Claims, subject to regulatory approval, and Head of Claims for its Specialty business unit.

Tony began his career at HSBC, where he spent more than 25 years in a range of roles, including Head of Claims. Following his time at HSBC, Tony joined Canopus Group, serving as Claims Operations Manager and Head of Retail & Delegated. Most recently, Tony was for seven years Head of Claims at Geo Underwriting, an MGA providing specialist insurance solutions to niche markets, operating across Personal, Commercial, and Specialty lines for both UK and international markets.

Tony, who is based in London, will report to the CEO, AmTrust Specialty Limited, and functionally to the EVP, Global Chief Operating Officer. He will be responsible for the strategy and execution of AmTrust's claims operations, overseeing total claims outcomes across the Specialty business. In his dual role, Tony will lead claims management and resolution, drive innovation and process improvement, and ensure full compliance with AmTrust's Claims Management Principles and Minimum Standards.

"Throughout his career, Tony has demonstrated exceptional leadership, strategic vision, and a steadfast commitment to service excellence in the specialty claims sector," said Ariel Gorelik, EVP, Global Chief Operating Officer for AmTrust Financial Services, Inc. "His insight and experience will be invaluable assets as we continue to strengthen our capabilities and deliver outstanding results for our clients and partners."

"Tony's appointment reinforces our commitment to delivering consistent, high-quality claims service across our global operations," said Bruce Whitmee, Chief Executive Officer of AmTrust Specialty Limited. "His leadership will further strengthen the alignment between our specialty claims capabilities and the needs of our local business units, ensuring we continue to support clients with precision and responsiveness in every market we serve."

"I am excited to have the opportunity to join the Claims team at AmTrust," said Tony. "I look forward to working with the team and we aim to build upon AmTrust's established reputation for delivering a first-class claims experience for our clients."
